

IN BRIEF

Box screens Edward Curtis documentary

ST. JOSEPH — “Coming to Light: Edward Curtis and the North American Indians” will be shown at 7 p.m. Friday at the Box Factory for the Arts, 1101 Broad St., as part of its First Friday Film Series.

Anne Makepeace’s award-winning documentary tells the story of Curtis’ life, the creation of his monumental photographic work, and his changing views of the people he set out to document. The film also shares views from the descendants of Curtis’ work, who tell stories about the people in the photographs, and discuss the meaning of the images.

Admission is $5.

For more information, call 983-3688 or visit www.boxfactoryforthearts.org.

TCP begins ‘Streetcar’ auditions on Saturday

ST. JOSEPH — The Twin City Players will hold auditions for its April production of the Tennessee Williams classic, “A Streetcar Named Desire,” at 1 p.m. Saturday, and 7 p.m. Sunday on the TCP Campus, 600 W. Glenlord Road.

The play centers on Blanche du Bois, a woman whose life has been undermined by her romantic illusions. Her arrival at the apartment of her sister and brother-in-law Stella and Stanley Kowalski upsets their delicate balance and soon descends into a cruel and violent confrontation.

Participants are asked to prepare a one-minute monologue and will be asked to participate in readings from the script and theatrical warm-up exercises. There are roles for six men and six women.

Performance dates are April 4-5, 11-13, 18-19 and 25-27.

For more information, call 429-0400 or visit www.twincityplayers.org.

Rehearsals scheduled for KOS’s ‘Tarzan’ play

BENTON HARBOR — Rehearsals for Kids On Stage’s production of “Disney’s Tarzan” begins at 9:30 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday at The Kids On Stage Theatre at The Orchards Mall, 1800 Pipestone Road.

Based on the 1999 animated film, “Tarzan” tells the story of an infant boy orphaned on the shores of West Africa. Taken in and raised by a tribe of gorillas, he strives for acceptance by while grappling with his uniqueness.

The cast is made up of children in grades 4-12. Registration is still being accepted. Every child who registers is guaranteed participation in the production. Performances are March 14-16 and 21-23.

Registration is $249. Partial scholarships are available.

For more information, call Doug Fordyce at 313-2795 or visit www.dougs-kidsonstage.com.

LMC continues ‘Island’ auditions on Jan. 9

BENTON HARBOR — Additional auditions for the Lake Michigan College Theatre Department’s spring musical, “Once on This Island,” will be held at 7 p.m. Jan. 9 in the Hanson Theater of LMC’s Mendel Center, 2755 E. Napier Ave.

In this one-act musical, a troupe of peasant storytellers act out the story of Ti Moune and Daniel to a young girl frightened by a storm on a Caribbean island.

Auditions are open to both LMC students and community members. Performance will be March 28-30 and April 4-6. Calvin McClinton is directing.

For more information, call 927-8627 or 927-8876.

Vickers Theatre closes for season on Tuesday

THREE OAKS — The Vickers Theatre, 6 N. Elm St., will show the films “Wadжда” and “All is Lost” this weekend before closing for the season.

Showtimes for “Wadжда,” a Saudi Arabian film about a young girl determined to raise enough money for a bicycle, screens at 6:15 p.m. Friday-Monday and 12:30 p.m. Saturday. “All is Lost,” an adventure drama about a man (Robert Redford) who must fight for survival after being lost at sea, continues with screenings at 9 p.m. Friday-Saturday and 3:15 p.m. Saturday-Sunday.

Admission is $10, $8 for students and seniors. The Vickers will close for the season starting Tuesday, reopening in mid-February.

For more information, call 756-3522 or visit www.vickerstheatre.com.